FRIDAY, MAY 17, 1901.

BOSS CROKER is coming back in June from his trip abroad, having remained away from New York long enough to allow his character to recuperate from the assaults of the reformers.

THE president's happy little talks and the smiling, amiable disposition he continually displayed on his tour of the South give rise to a suspicion that he had in view the benevolent assimilation of the people that did their best to defeat his election.

A PAPER published in San Francisco tells a marvellous bogey story of a half-human half-bear creature which caught a beautiful Texas girl, the belle of Marble Falls society, when she went out to gather her herd of sheep at night, and carried her to a cave. The beautiful belle was rescued, and a posse of her admirers shot the bogey as it charged on them. This is vouchered for as an actual fact. No wonder New York, St. Louis, Chicago and other cities are sending delegations to investigate the resources of a state which produces such wonderful animals and such accomplished society ladies.

"NEW YORKITIS" is a new disease lately discovered by a New York physician. He has written a book on the subject from which the following description of the disease is taken:

"New Yorkitis is a disease in which the mind, soul and body have departed more or less from the normal. The mental symptoms exhibited by persons suffering from 'New Yorkitis,' looked at as a whole, seem at first glance to be closely allied to the delusions of general paresis.

"The victim of New Yorkitis has numberless illusions, delusions and hallucinations about what he calls 'society.' His respect for clothes and for one street or avenue over another is astounding. The value of the cloth a man wears and the price per front foot of the street he lives in play all sorts of pranks with the diseased imagination of a New Yorkite, and so distort his estimates of men and things and institutions that they become ludicrous to a healthy subject, or to one less advanced in the disease."

TURKEY is threatened with an ultimatum by the powers, which will be backed by a naval demonstration. No doubt this will be welcome to Constantinople, as well as to the sultan. An ultimatum is easily disposed of by his majesty, whose stock of promises and apologies is always ready to meet such emergencies, and the naval demonstration will make a nice diversion for Constantinople. The American "naval demonstration," with which it was hoped to bring about a settlement of the missionary claims, was greatly enjoyed by the sultan and his people—and the yankee naval officers had a good time also.

Probable Fever Case

Chicago, May 13.—A special to the Tribune from Springfield, Ill., says: A message received by Dr. J. A. Egan, secretary of the State board of health; from Gardner, Grundy county, states that a stranger recently arrived from Jacksonville, Fla., was ill at that place with the symptoms of yellow fever. Dr. Egan answered it would be well to keep the suspect under surveillance during developments, but says he thinks it probable the case is dengue.

Mrs. Virginia Cevine and two children arrived on the stage last night from Laredo, to visit her sister, Mrs. Martin Hanson.

Mr. Kleberg Home.

Congressman Kleberg returned today from Washington and leaves tomorrow for Yorktown and later for Corpus to visit kindred. Mr. Kleberg is looking well and leaves his family in Washington in good health. All will return to Cuero to spend the summer and fall.

Questioned as to politics Mr. Kleberg said that this was an off year and that he was giving it but little thought, but that he expected to be a candidate for re-nomination when the time came and at the proper time would go before the people with his candidacy as he had always done. Nothing but a violent gerrymander will prevent his candidacy and his friends do not now anticipate anything of the kind.—Cuero Star.

Late Items.

Labor leaders will endeavor to establish a nine-hour work day for all engaged in machinery industry.

The Cuban constitutional convention held a secret session to consider the report of the commission that visited Washington to see the president about the Platt amendment. They report that the amendment cannot be changed but they were assured by Secretary Root that the United States would not interfere with Cuban independence.

A river steamer was sunk at Brunkhorst Landing, Ill., two passengers and twenty-two of the crew being drowned.

Another call for aid has been made by Jacksonville for fire victims.

AN EDITOR PARDONED.

Governor Odell has pardoned William F. Sherlock, who was sentenced to serve three months in the New York county penitentiary for criminal libel. Sherlock was the editor of The Unionist of New York city, a labor journal, which, during a strike among the printers of a daily newspaper of New York city, attacked the terman of the composing room of that paper for which attack Sherlock was found guilty of criminal libel and sent to prison. His petition for pardon was based on the plea that at the time the attack was published the paper was edited by persons other than himself.

Woman's Horror

Modest women dread to consult a doctor about diseases peculiar to their sex. They have a horror of private examinations and surgical operations. For this reason treatment of dangerous derangements is neglected. But the Wine of Cardui treatment, which can be adopted at home without the knowledge of any one but the patient herself, is now coming into general use. Women who take Wine of Cardui do not have to submit to a physician's local examination nor to a surgical operation. Wine of Cardui cures in the privacy of the home. No publicity, no cutting and torture and no physician or examination, while Wine of Cardui is quietly building up and strengthening the female organs. Menstruation is regulated, the drains of leucorrhoea stopped and the fallen womb restored to its place. The terrible pains which rack the body are but results of the ailments, which yield so readily to the soothing properties of Wine of Cardui. The medicine that cured Miss Garlen will certainly help you.

Wine of Cardui

Rockford, Tenn., Aug. 15, 1900.
I have suffered from womb trouble for five years. Last spring a year ago I was bedfast for six months. I paid $32 to one doctor, and he said he had done all he could for me. I had about given up, but called another doctor, who said I would have to have surgical treatment. I decided I might as well die a natural death as that. I happened to get hold of a Ladies' Birthday Almanac, and decided to try your treatment. In nine days after I commenced taking Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught I could walk across my room, and in three weeks I made myself a dress. This was after my neighbors, and even my brothers and sisters, said I would never be any better. I am now in good health.
Miss S. E. GARLEN.
